If the JV has not been legally established by the tender submission date, the Bid Security can be submitted in the name of all JV members as per the MOU, regardless of each member's share in the JV.

The MOU should include all the important information about the JV members, like who they are, how they'll share responsibilities and financial commitments, and what they're responsible for in terms of technical matters and other obligations.

The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) should not be altered during the tender's validity. Failure to comply may result in the forfeiture of the full Bid Security/Earnest Money Deposit (EMD). Changes to the composition of the Joint Venture (JV) after tender submission and during the contract are not allowed, except when necessary, due to legal requirements, with the condition that the minimum eligibility criteria of the JV remain unaltered. The Lead Member of the JV must remain constant. Non-compliance with these rules will render the offer invalid.

- d) Upon receiving the Letter of Acceptance (LoA), the Joint Venture (JV) entity to which the contract has been awarded, with the same ownership structure as declared in the MOU/JV Agreement submitted with the tender, must be officially registered. The type of registration will depend on whether the JV entity is becoming a Company under 'The Companies Act - 2013,' a Partnership Firm under 'The Indian Partnership Act, 1932,' or an LLP under 'The LLP Act 2008.' A separate PAN (Permanent Account Number) should also be obtained for this entity.
- e) All relevant documents, including the PAN, must be provided to the procuring entity before the contract agreement is signed. Failure to comply with this requirement within 60 (sixty) days of receiving the LoA may result in contract termination. If the contract is terminated, the entire Bid Security/Earnest Money Deposit may be forfeited and other dues owed to the Contractor under the contract may be recovered.
- f) The Joint Venture to which the contract is awarded shall have joint and several liability, meaning that all members are equally responsible for executing the project in accordance with the General and Special Conditions of Contract. They are jointly and individually liable for any losses or damages caused to the procuring entity during the contract's execution or due to non-execution. The registration of the entity remains valid throughout the contract, including any extensions and the maintenance period/ Defect Liability Period after project completion. The entity must comply with Indian laws and regulations in all aspects of its operations under the contract.

- g) In the context of Joint Ventures, certain authorizations and restrictions apply. The members of the Joint Venture are required to appoint a Lead Member from within the JV members, who shall be acting as the authorized member of the JV and will represent the JV in dealings related to the tender. The Lead member/ authorized member is responsible for actions such as signing the agreement, entering into the contract, receiving payments, witnessing joint measurements of work completed, and signing measurement books pertaining to the contract. All notices and correspondence regarding the contract will be directed solely to this authorized member.
- h) Furthermore, it's important to note that no member of the Joint Venture has the unilateral right to assign or transfer their interest, rights, or liabilities within the contract without obtaining written consent from the remaining member(s) and the procuring entity, specifically for the respective tender or contract. These provisions help ensure clarity, accountability, and compliance within the Joint Venture framework.
- i) Unauthorized change shall lead to:
 - a) Rejection of bid, or
 - b) Termination of contract and forfeiture of securities.

7. Performance Guarantee/ Other Guarantees by JV:
