However, Central Government provides financial assistance to the State Governments for water resources development under the schemes of Accelerated Irrigation Benefits Programme (AIBP), Repair, Renovation and Restoration of Water Bodies, Command Area Development & Water Management, etc. Growing population and urbanisation, combined with fast increasing developmental needs, have put a tremendous pressure, on India's water availability. It is now a country of more than 1.21 billion people, which is about 18% of the world's population, with 4% of the total usable water and 2.3% of the agriculturable land available in the world. India's problem is multi-dimensional. Challenges are going to be further compounded, due to the climate change.

Ministry of Water Resources, River Development & Ganga Rejuvenation

- Overall allocation of resources for the Ministry of Water Resources, River Development & Ganga Rejuvenation has increased from Rs 7,431 crore in 2015-16 to Rs 12,517 crore in the Union Budget for 2016-17 through budgetary support and market borrowings. This is an increase of more than 168%.

Out of the 149 projects that are on-going, 89 projects have been found to be active and 46 of them have been placed under high priority category. These projects are likely to get completed by the end of 2020 in different stages. Further, out of these 46 projects, 23 projects have been further shortlisted and are targeted for completion by March 2017. These projects are being taken up in mission mode so that the projects get completed by the target time and the complete benefits from the projects accrue to the farmers. An innovative funding mechanism has been devised for arranging funds for these projects. The funds are to be arranged from market borrowing with a repayment schedule spread over 10-20 years from the annual budget of Centre and States. To complete the priority projects the Centre and States will work together in mission mode. A committee with Irrigation Ministers of Telangana, Chhattisgarh, and Maharashtra alongwith Principal Secretaries of some other States has been constituted to bring more synergy in to this exercise.
- The National Groundwater Management Improvement Project (NGWMIP) is proposed to support sustainable groundwater resource management and creation of an environment for reforms. The project will be completed in six year with financial outlay of Rs. 6000 crore out of which Rs. 3000 crores shall come as IBRD loan.
- Command Area Development programme being implemented since 1974-75 has been included in Pradhan Mantri Krishi Sinchai Yojna (PMKSY). Till now 219 projects have been completed and 149 projects are actively on-going with CCA of 16.8 Mha since inception. Total Central Assistance of about Rs.6382 crore had been released to States upto January, 2016. NAMAMI GANGE PROGRAMME

Namami Gange Programme, is a flagship programme of Government of India with a renewed impetus to decrease river pollution and conserve the revered river 'Ganga'. In this connection, the Indian Government solicited support from various countries to rejuvenate the Ganga. Government of Germany, with its vast experiences in cleaning and rejuvenating European rivers such as Rhine, Elbe and Danube, was keen to join hands for collaboration with Government of India.

As a result of this commitment, the Implementation Agreement on the Technical Corporation Project 'Support to Ganga Rejuvenation' has been signed on 13th April, 2016 at Shram Shakti Bhawan, New Delhi between the Ministry of Water Resources, River Development and Ganga Rejuvenation (MoWR, RD& GR) and Deutsche Gesellschaft fur International Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH in the presence of the German Ambassador, Dr. Martin Ney and Secretary, Ministry of Water Resources, River Development and Ganga Rejuvenation.

The objective of the project is to enable responsible stakeholders at National and State level to apply integrated river basin management approaches for the rejuvenation of the river Ganga. This will be based on Indo-German Knowledge exchange and practical experience on strategic river basin management issues, effective data management system and public engagement. The project will closely cooperate with other National and international initiatives including Indo-German bilateral projects like Support to National Urban Sanitation Policy (SNUSP) and 'Sustainable Environment-friendly Industrial Production' (SEIP). The project duration is three years i.e. from 2016 to 2018 and the German Contribution in the project is up to EUR 3,000,000. Initial actions will focus on the State of Uttarakhand, with scope of expansion to other upstream Ganga States. The ultimate goal is to adopt the successful river basin management strategies used for Rhine and replicate the same, wherever possible for attaining the pristine status of river Ganga.

This is the total amount for the five year period from 2012 to 2017. Therefore the available market from this plan per year for consultancies is Rs. 3,200 crores. In the first phase of planning, the broad areas/ projects of CSR are identified. This is done based on the budget allocation and identification of area/location of the CSR project.

Before taking any final decision on the selection of any CSR and Sustainability project, WAPCOS assess the needs of the intended beneficiaries for a realistic assessment of the resource inputs required for the expected level of social / economic / environmental impact through the implementation of the project.

Implementation:

Activities selected under CSR and Sustainability agenda by WAPCOS are normally implemented in a project mode, which entails charting the stages of execution in advance through planned processes, with mobilisation of pre-estimated quantum of resources, and within the allocated budgets and prescribed timelines. It also involves assigning clear responsibility and accountability of the designated officials / agencies who are entrusted with the task of implementation. All CSR and sustainability projects are carried out with defined deliverables, planned timelines and through implementation partners.

Monitoring:

To assess if the progress is on expected lines in terms of timelines, budgetary expenditure and achievement of physical targets, monitoring is done periodically with the help of identified key performance indicators; the periodicity being determined largely by the nature of performance indicators. Continuous feedback and mid-course correction in implementation, whenever required are key components of effective monitoring process.

Impact Assessment:

Impact assessment is mandatory for projects, of the threshold value of Rs.25 lakhs and above. In order to have visible impact of long term projects, impact assessment studies of such projects is carried out on completion of continued period of every 3 years, or actual period of completion, whichever is earlier.

ANNEXURE - III TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of WAPCOS LIMITED ("the Company") as of 31 March 2016 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Dear Ambassador Sinha,

Thank you for sharing the recent photographs taken by your Consul-General at the Salma Dam Site. I am pleased with the progress and looking forward to inaugurating this important symbol of our cooperation.

The Cabinet, incidentally, has renamed the Salma Dam as the India-Afghanistan Friendship Dam. Every drop of water used for irrigation and every bulb providing reading light to children will remind the generations to come of the million ties that bind us.

Please accept my best regards.
